About The Arc Ontario

In 1954, a time when options for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities were extremely limited, a group of parents from Geneva founded The Arc Ontario to provide education and service to their children.

Thanks to their perseverance and persistence, the founding parents helped pave the way for future generations of people with disabilities or other challenges. For over 65 years, The Arc Ontario has provided high quality services to people of all ages, supporting them to reach their full potential and become one with their communities.

Your generous support of our agency gives individuals - both today and tomorrow - endless opportunities to succeed and enjoy independent lives.

For more information about The Arc Ontario, visit us online at ontarioarc.org or call us at (585) 394-7500.
